THE SEQUELLE

For

1960

Administration

Dr. Paul G. Chandler

TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1960—

In the four years you have been at Clarion you have witnessed one of the great educational revolutions of history. This revolution is due to the population explosion that started in America in 1940 as a result of war influences.

Colleges have grown and Clarion in particular has grown from a small school to a large one. Scholastic standards have been raised. You have seen many and extensive physical improvements.

You will soon be its alumni (ae). You should be proud of your Alma Mater and the College will be proud of you.

Looking back at our four short years at Clarion State College, we hesitate before making our final farewell. We fondly recall the various activities and experiences that are so important in the life of a college student: dormitory life, athletic contests, gala dances, fraternity and sorority events, student teaching days, the Student Union and our assiduous studies.

We are grateful for the capable assistance of Dr. Dana Still, our class advisor who has guided us through the intricate mazes of college life. We also extend our thanks to the class officers who faithfully served us during our college years.

Congratulations are in store for Korlene Smith who was elected Queen of the Homecoming and to her charming attendants from our class, Mary Lee Stewart and Doris Calhoun.

The Valentine's Dance and Twirp Week were the big events of our senior year. With Baccalaureate and Commencement, we saw our days at Clarion State College come to an end.

Yes, we look back on our college experiences with pleasure and sorrow for that which is past, and with a slight uncertainty, we look to the future and the hope and promise it has to offer.

The Juniors began the active year when sixteen of the class returned for the Leadership Workshop. We remained active throughout the year as we used our influence in freshman week and the Frosh Customs Committee. We sponsored the Christmas Dance with its very modern decorations, and we collaborated with the Senior Class for the Spring Dance.

We were honored to have Miss Hannah Evans and Miss Marge McLaughlin as our Homecoming representatives. Bobbi Berlinski and Linnie Low Steiner were Sigma Tau Gamma's White Rose Queens. We were also pleased to have four of our class members in the first Winter Carnival Court—Joyce Andre, Hannah Evans, Linda Long, and Helen Mindek.

The class was fortunate in having two of its members, Jack King and Jim Hunter, chosen by the American Field Service to act as chaperones on the services' continental tour for foreign exchange students.

We are thoughtfully looking forward to as pleasant a Senior year as the past year has been for the Junior Class.

Sophomore Class

The Sophomore Class accomplished many things during the school year. The highlight of our activities was the decorating of the Homecoming Dance in cooperation with the Freshmen.

Carol Boris and Phoebe Etzel represented the class as Homecoming Attendants; Sue Dunselman was the Red Rose Queen of the Delta Kappa Fraternity; and Judy Popielski was Queen of the Alpha Gamma Phi Fraternity.

All in all, our class enjoyed a wonderful year on the Clarion campus, and we are eagerly looking forward to September when we reach the next rung toward graduation as Juniors.

The Freshman Class is very proud of its successful first year at Clarion. We have enjoyed many good times together and have had many valuable experiences on the campus. The combination of what we have learned in class and in extra-curricular activities will someday bring many pleasant memories as we look back on the years spent in college.

Among the activities which the class sponsored are: the Homecoming Dance in co-operation with the Sophomores; the Mardi Gras in February; and other minor events.

We are certainly proud to have been Freshmen and will be prouder still to return in September as Sophomores.

The Student Senate is comprised of twelve elected members who meet regularly with Dr. Chandler to budget the college activity fund in the best interest of the student body. All clubs, social, and athletic functions on the campus, are sponsored, for the most part, by the appropriations of this organization. A major accomplishment of this year's senate was the addition of intercollegiate wrestling to the athletic program.

Twenty-one of this year's seniors were selected to represent Clarion in the 1959-1960 publication of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Those selected were Gloria Allen, Adele Cipollone, Norma Colton, Wayne Costa, Roger Daum, Hardee Drayer, Sally Gazdo, Irvin Henry, Marvin Henry, Nancy Johnson, James Kockler, Harry Lash, Robert McElravy, Patricia Murray, Carol Nason, Frederick Olan, Mary Lee Stewart, Katheryne Tomson, Arthur Van North, Georgio Verlotto, and Nancy Wertz.

This honor is delegated to those students who rank among the upper two per cent of the college and university students in the United States. Nomination to this organization implies the student's leadership and participation in academic and extra-curricular activities, his scholarship, his citizenship and service to the school, and his promise of future leadership.

In addition to receiving notional recognition in the organization's annual publication, members are also entitled to the use of the excellent professional placement service affiliated with Who's Who. Recipients of this coveted honor are chosen by the committee on Academic and Professional Standing. Clarion has been represented in Who's Who since the founding of the organization in 1934.

The Ballentine Hall House Council is in its fourth year of serving purposefully the dormitory men's interest on the Clarion campus. During this time the council has had a sterling record in accomplishing their aims toward the development of the well rounded individual.

Among their major projects for the year were an Open House reception during the Homecoming celebration, various dormitory parties for the residents, and student government for the dormitories.

It is evident that in the future the student body will reap the benefits sowed by the mature foresight of this group.

Having as its main purpose the governing of the women's dormitories, the Women's House Council is comprised of women from each building and each class.

Miss Grace Pryor, Dean of Women, has aided in the planning of all their activities which include the freshmen orientation program, the Big-Sister-Little-Sister Tea, the Christmas party, women's rules and regulations, joint work with the men's house council, and many other diversified activities.

Social Committee

The purpose of the social committee is to provide a well-rounded social program for the students of Clarion State College.

Through the innovations which the committee made, as well as the continuance of past functions, Clarion's social calendar may well be claimed as one of the best.

Highlights of the year's program include outstanding motion pictures shown in the chapel, swimming, dancing, spring week-end, and bowling.

Members of the committee are Miss Pryor, Mr. Mellon, Dr. Anson, Dr. Knuth, Dr. King, Karlene Smith, Jim Hunter, Carole Boris, and Annabelle Minarcin.

The Sequelle Staff

Reminiscing is fun, especially when we get together with friends and talk about our college days. During the 1959-1960 semesters, the students of Clarion State College have participated in many of the activities that are a part of college life. They have elected, planned, organized, and directed. As a record of these campus activities, the college annual staff presents to you, the students of Clarion State College, the 1960 SEQUELLE.

The organization of this annual was capably handled by the co-editors, Joe Gates and Patricia Murray. Jack King, as head of the literary department, was assisted by Linda Long and Dorothy Lewis. Finances were managed by Max Narby, the staff's business manager. Material on the seniors was organized by Carol Nason while Joe Szymkowiak contributed the sports write-ups. The hard-working members of the lay-out staff were Maureen Healy, Bill Hallman, Joe Szymkowiak, Gene Burger, and Linda Long. Pictures were collected and organized by Paul Enoch and Eugene Szul. Patricia French, Shirley Pyle, and Dorothy Lewis contributed their services to this publication as typists.

We especially thank our advisors, Mr. Pearce and Mr. Karl, and our past advisor Mr. Kuhner, for their help with the preparation of the 1960 SEQUELLE.

The Press Club is concerned with the publication of the Clarian Call. The Call is published four times a semester by students who are interested in journalism. The writing and layout of the paper is done by students, while the printing is handled by the Clarian newspapers.

The first page carries the news items; the second page carries the editorials and features; the third page carries sports; and the fourth page is devoted to club, fraternity, and sorority news.

The Press Club is engaged in an active exchange program with other colleges in Western Pennsylvania. The exchange papers are located in the recreation reading room of the library and are available to students.

Each member is free to choose an area of art in which he is interested and to explore the medium in his own way. The members of Art Club are looking toward a long-ranged project to complement the "new look" of Clorion's campus.

Oil and watercolor painting, ceramics, textile painting, leather work, and sculpture, along with a flavor of creativity and enthusiasm are the popular interest areas which an Art Club member might seek.

Thanks and credit are due to Mr. Spence, art instructor and sponsor of the club, for his continued guidance and encouraging spirit.

The purpose of Student P. S. E. A. is to provide prospective teachers with a background for the teaching profession, to give them training in leadership, and to help them grow professionally.

Meetings are held regularly each month. A variety of programs are presented for the benefit of the members. These programs include movies, panel discussions, speakers, and talk-arounds. Aside from regular meetings, the Clarion group attends district conferences and other educational conventions. This past year, Ken Linn served as Midwestern District President of Student P. S. E. A. The educational program is supplemented by other projects such as building a float for Homecoming, acting as guides for students touring the campus, and lastly a banquet in the spring with A. C. E.

Student P. S. E. A. has had an enjoyable year under the assistance and guidance of our sponsors, Mr. Shontz and Dr. Smail.

Freshman Customs Committee

Members

Chris D Ascenzo—Chairman; Janet Decker, Pat Dunmire, Joe Gates, Jack C. King, Mary Lee Stewart, Ed Stupka, Jim Hunter—Bailiff, Jon Walter—Clerk.

New innovations were a part of "Frosh Week" this year. Early in April, 1959, a Freshman Customs Committee was organized. This group drew up new rules and regulations regarding "Frosh Week," held early in September. Freshmen were required to wear dinks, signs, and handbooks from 8:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M. each day. There were also other duties which the "Frosh" had to perform. Violators were reported to the Tribunal and those found guilty carried out extra punishment duties. Everything was climaxed by the "Frosh Hop" and the crowning of the "Frosh Queen and King.

We realize that customs requires much improvement. Yet, we somehow have the feeling that though many complaints were heard, the Frosh "enjoyed their" week.

The committee say "thanks" to all those, especially Dr. J. C. King, our advisor, for helping to make Customs a success.

Leadership Workshop

The second annual Leadership Workshop was held at Clarion State College on September 6-7, 1959. Forty-three students, representing all four classes, were chosen to attend the workshop on the basis of merit, leadership ability, and recommendations by student and faculty groups.

Following the first year's discussion topic, "Maturity: It's Nature and Significance in Student Leadership" was "The College Social Program." Chairman and presiding officer of this year's entire workshop was Joe Gates. Group leaders were Jack King, Pat Dunmire, Chris D'Ascenzo, Jim Hunter, and Jon Walter.

A major result of the 1959-60 Workshop was the establishment of the Committee of Ten of which Bob Hartz acted as chairman. Others who served with him were Linda Long, secretary; Jack King, Jon Walter, George Cindrich, Jim DeMarte, Hank Sullivan, Jon Gardner, Pat Dunmire, and Carole Boris. This committee, organized to carry out ideas suggested at the workshop, saw the birth of a co-educational lounge, in the new women's dorm, better known as "The Roost."

The Workshop group also ardently supported the Freshmen Customs Committee in their attempt to establish new rules and regulations concerning "Frosh Week."

Everyone will agree that our campus is a much better place due to the spirit which originated and was generated early in September when forty-three eager, ready, able, and willing collegians returned early to campus.

The girls on campus wearing white blazers with green piping are commonly known as "Delts." They represent Epsilon Theta Chapter of Delta Zeta, national social sorority. The many activities throughout the school year included the rush party, pledge party, Mother's Day Tea, pizza and coke parties, philanthropic projects, Cook's Forest weekend and many other activities which served to strengthen the warm bond of sisterhood.

The Delts were quite honored this year to have Doris Calhoun, senior, represent her class as Homecoming attendant and Bobbi Berlinski, junior, chosen as Sigma Tau White Rose Queen. Homecoming day also brought third place honors with the float, "The Mad Hatter's Tea Party." We are also proud to have Patricia Murray, senior, chosen to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

Throughout this year, the Delts have worked together to strive for the betterment of each individual member socially, intellectually, and morally. The highest ideals of womanhood are stressed and taught; the highest ideals of love and friendship are practical—always.

This year marks the 25th year for Alpha Pi chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma on Clarion campus. Tri Sigma is a national social sorority which is very proud of the fact that "Sigma serves children." This is done through our Robbie Paige Memorial Fund. Much time and money has also been given toward the search for cures of mysterious childhood diseases.

Along with this serious side of Sigma sorority life with all its benefits the purple and white sisters on campus had a most enjoyable year together with hoyrides, swimming and bowling parties, Homecoming Tea, rush parties, Christmas Party, and a special celebration of our silver anniversary in April.

We are very proud of our Tri Sigma sisters who won special recognition this year. Joyce Andre reigned as Miss Clarion County and Autumn Leaf Festival queen. Chosen as fraternity queens at Homecoming were Linnie Lou Steiner for Sigma Tau Gamma and Myrno Bastides for Phi Sigma Epsilon. Representing Tri Sigma on the queen's court at Homecoming were Mary Lee Stewart, Margie McLaughlin, and Carol Boris.

Zeta Tau Alpha, formerly Lambda Chi Delta, was initiated as Delta Iota chapter on Clarion campus in March of this year.

As a national social sorority we had a year filled with such events as Homecoming Tea, rush parties, Christmas Party, rummage and candy sales, Mother's Day Tea, and our annual Spring Weekend at Hess' farm.

Karlene Smith reigned as Homecoming queen and the Zeta float won second prize. Our sisters who were chosen as fraternity queens were Judy Papielski, Alpha Gamma Phi queen; and Sue Kunselman, Delta Kappa queen. Sally Gazda and Adela Cippolone were elected "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

Alpha Gamma Phi, the oldest fraternity on campus, is founded on the ideals of fellowship, scholarship, and character. Founded March 3, 1930, the Gammas have continued their tradition of being one of the school's most active organizations.

The first semester brought our annual Homecoming gathering, successful as always and enjoyed by both old and present members. The annual stag banquet was held at Johnny Garneau's after the Homecoming football game.

The men of Alpha Gamma Phi are well known on campus for their cheerfulness, friendliness, and participation in college activities.

It is our fondest hope that the pledges, both upperclassmen and freshmen, will maintain the resourcefulness and traditions of Alpha Gamma Phi.

The men of Delta Kappa Fraternity strive for the development of true brotherhood through the socializing influence of fraternal life. We also work to further the personal development of each Brother by encouraging high standards of scholarship, ethical conduct, and campus leadership. For almost thirty years Delta Kappa has helped mold the lives of Clarion men.

The first event on the Delta Kappa social calendar this year was the election of Miss Susan Kunselman as our Red Rose Queen, followed by the traditional serenade. Our efforts at Homecoming were well rewarded when our float "The Vikings" placed first. The fall rush season saw four new men join our Brotherhood after completing the necessary period of pledge instruction. This first period of Fall rushing added a rush party and informal and formal initiations to our schedule. The chapter bent its efforts toward the Snow Sculpture contest and produced another winner, "Odin, God of the North." Our Spring rush and pledging program, our annual Spring Banquet, and usual stiff competition at "Greek Night" tapped off an active year.

This year also brought a major change in our status on campus. Phi Chapter of Delta Kappa asked for and received permission from the Grand Chapter to withdraw and affiliate with a larger national fraternity. This is a most unusual action and has involved the strictest compliance with National Interfraternity Council regulations. By late spring a new name will have taken its place among the Greeks at Clarion. We hope that the influence of a larger and older national fraternity will add much to the local scene.

Phi Sigma Epsilon, a national social fraternity, belongs to the National Interfraternity Conference. This organization strives to promote a closer bond among men students of higher educational institutions, so that they may enter into more intimate fellowship with those dedicated to education. Clarion Phi Eta Chapter was installed on January 31, 1959.

First semester activities included the Homecoming Float, "Around the World in Eighty Days," election of Miss Mercedes Bastide as our Homecoming Queen, and a pizza party for our rushees. Rushing and Greek night highlighted our second semester.

Another successful year has been enjoyed by all the Phi Sigs.

Sigma Tau Gamma, a national social fraternity and a member of the National Interfraternity Conference, stresses high standards of education, honorable social living, and participation in extracurricular activities.

The Alpha Beta Chapter pledges members to its organization who have personal traits necessary for success.

The social calendar for the first semester included the Homecoming float, "Mother Goose" Rymes, the rushing of upperclassmen, the annual Sisters' Party, the sale of Christmas cards, various interfraternity basketball games, and the initiation of two new chapters of Sigma Tau Gamma at Edinboro and California State Colleges.

The second semester activities included the annual rush party, informal initiation of pledges, the formal initiation and banquet, and participation in Greek night.

Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatics fraternity was founded on Clarion's campus in 1936. Since then, membership has been a coveted honor.

Membership in the organization must be accomplished through hard work in one of the areas of dramatic arts—play production, scenery construction, publicity, or make-up. Thus we see why the membership is not extensive.

One of the highlights of each member's participation is the initiation ceremony held each year. It is not only an impressive event, but one to further the ideas and work of the fraternity.

Majorettes

Twirling batons and high stepping boots—signs of the Clarion State College Majorettes.

The eight lively co-eds marching in front of our band this year were a sight we students will never forget. They were led in their steps by Barbara Thomas and Dixie Lee Seabright, two champion twirlers.

The girls will always be remembered for their entertaining routines, especially the fine job they did with "Me and My Shadow."

Football

The 1959 season was indeed a successful one for the "Golden Eagles." The team got off to a rousing start with a 13-0 victory over Edinboro and ended the season with a record of six wins, one loss, and one tie.

Senior members of the squad were Ron McFarland, Blaine Todd, Lee Rouse, and co-captains, Bill Smutko and Dan Mahaney. They and their teammates are to be complimented for their sportsmanship and leadership.

Also to be congratulated are sophomores Bob Cloherty for having been named to the All State Teachers College First Team and Ernie Widmar for All State Teachers College Honorable Mention.

The head coach, Mr. Johnson, was assisted by Mr. Carnahan and Mr. Lignelli. With a good year behind them, the Clarian "Golden Eagles" are looking forward to a promising season in 1960.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleading squad at Clarion is made up of seven girls. The purpose of the cheerleaders is to support the football and basketball teams with the spirit of winning. They try to promote school spirit among the students by having pep rallies and cheering their best at each game.

The cheerleaders try to attend the games away from the campus as often as possible to support the players. They are also seen at parades and assemblies.

The Clarion State Golden Eagle wrestling team, under the direction of Coach Frank Lignelli, have compiled a 4-3 record for the first year of a Clarion wrestling revival. Using a nucleus of three men who had had some high school experience, Lignelli fashioned top-notch regulars out of five other men who had never wrestled before this year.

HOMECOMING

Bill Smutka, Karlene Smith, Dan Mahaney, Doris Calhoun.

Homecoming

Homecoming was held on October 10, the last day of the Autumn Leaf Festival and was sponsored by the Clarian Chamber of Commerce. The visit of Governor David L. Lawrence, who spoke at the dedication of the new girls' dormitory, highlighted the day and will make it long remembered by the students of C. S. C.

Dan Depp did a fine job of organizing the parade, for it was one of the best ever held. Float prizes this year were won by Delta Kappa Fraternity, Zeta Tau Alpha, formerly Lambda Chi Delta Sorority, and Delta Zeta Sorority, placing first, second, and third respectively.

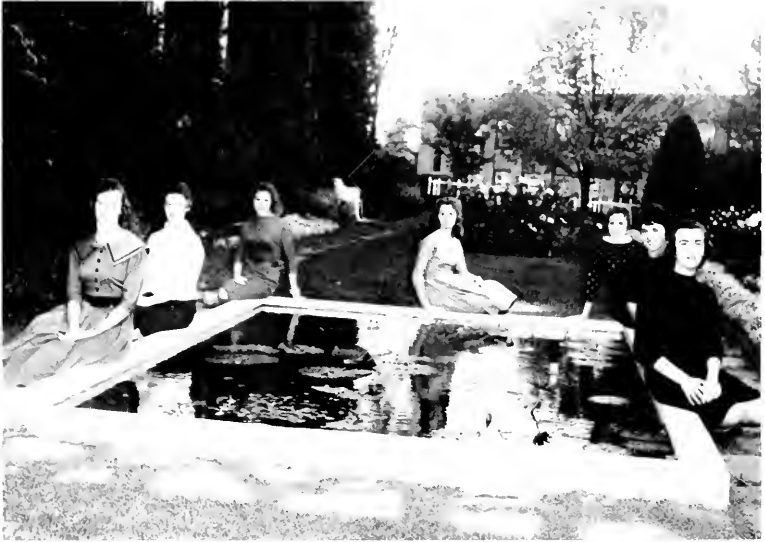

During halftime of the game, Miss Karlene Smith was crowned our Homecoming Queen, with Mary Lee Stewart and Doris Calhoun as senior attendants, Marge McLaughlin and Hannah Evans as junior attendants, Carol Boris and Phoebe Etzel as sophomore attendants, and Joanne Smail and Charlene Benninghoff as freshman attendants.

The day was climaxed with a large attendance at the Homecoming Dance held in Harvey Gymnasium with music furnished by Johnny Robert's orchestra.

Queen's Float

The float of the Queen and her court leads the enthusiasm of the annual Homecoming celebration with regal splendor and dignity. Our lovely queen, Karlene Smith, reigns with her attendants: Mary Lee Stewart, Doris Calhoun, Margie McLoughlin, Hannah Evans, Carol Boris, Phoebe Etzel, JoAnn Smail, and Charlene Benninghoff.
